A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

The beatitudes encourage us to place our trust in God. Something the world seems to find hard to do. It seems very easy to put our trust in things, in money, in power, yet Jesus continues to show us that it is only in trusting God that the beatitudes begin to make sense. We are called to serve one another, to die to ourselves and rise up to new life in Christ and service to our neighbors.

In doing this, not only do the beatitudes make sense, but we also begin to experience a peace and joy that nothing else can provide. Discipleship is entering into this loving and trusting relationship with Chris and experiencing for ourselves the blessedness to comes from that relationship. Missionary disciple ship comes when we desire to share that trust and joy with others so that they can experience the blessedness that comes from Christ.
Peace, Fr. Mike

Archdiocese of Newark - COVID-19 Directives - Updated May 15, 2022

STILL IN EFFECT: Masks will no longer be required for fully vaccinated persons. If not fully vaccinated, persons are strongly encouraged to follow CDC guidance and wear a face mask in public settings. People will no longer be required to socially distance indoors or outdoors, although unvaccinated persons should continue to maintain a safe distance from others. These directives apply to Masses and activities in Church. Archdiocesan protocols for Religious Education and Basketball programs remain in effect.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS: All ministries may return to full service – altar servers, lectors, ushers, greeters and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. Ministers of Holy Communion must still sanitize their hands and wear a mask when distributing Communion.

COMMUNION: While Communion on the tongue is now permitted, for the safety of the priests, ministers and other communicants, we encourage continued reception of communion in the hand. At this time, Communion from the cup should not be distributed to the assembly.

SANITIZING: The cleaning and sanitizing of churches and common spaces is done regularly. It is not required after every liturgy.

PARISH MEETINGS: Parish meetings in person may resume. Those vaccinated are not required to wear masks for indoor meetings nor are they required to maintain social distancing. The same recommendations for Mass apply to those not vaccinated.

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate John McGuire:

I've been talking with my son Elijah lately about food. We will place a nice healthy meal in front of him, and yet, he'll ask for a piece of candy, or other treat. While I'll often prefer a sweet over vegetables anyway, I find myself having to advocate for healthy nutritious foods. "Elijah, treats make us happy, but your dinner will help you grow big and strong". What we consume really matters. This applies equally for diet as it does for our spiritual lives. How do we feed our intellect, our spirit, and our lives? It is really easy, especially when you don't have very young children, to zone out and consume media, as if they were potato chips or ice cream. Action movies, comedies, true-crime, dramas, and endless streaming catalogs are at our fingertips 24/7, and escape from reality, and mindless enjoyment are highly appealing. However, when it comes to our spiritual life, they are calorically dense, and low in nutrients. They can make us happy, but if they are all we consume, we'll become spiritually sluggish. If we don't nurture and nourish our faith, it cannot grow big and strong. Our faith metabolism will grow slow, and our bodies will begin to only crave what isn't good for it. The thing is, we're in luck, because there is an endless buffet of healthy options available for our consumption at all times. It just takes the time to set the shopping list, and build the diet that will best nourish you. Are you the intellectual type, who finds joy in academic pursuits, and knowledge? You may do well to sample from the Dominican tradition of our Church and scholasticism. Do you thrive within structure, and a dedicated rule of life? Benedictine or Jesuit spirituality might fit your tastes. Do you find yourself contemplating, and reflecting on every aspect of your life? Perhaps you would be drawn to Carmelite spirituality...
