A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

Continuing his Sermon of the Mount in Matthew’s Gospel today, Jesus challenges us to choose obedience and life by fulfilling the commandments and beatitudes. But he is asking us to not simply fulfill the letter of the law, but to fulfill the spirit of the law as well. To do this he helps us explore the full meaning of the commandments so that we have a better understanding of the spirit of the law. Thus in the commandment: “Thou shall not kill”, killing means not just physical death, but inflicting emotional and spiritual wounds as well.

Fortunately for us, Jesus gives us the grace necessary to fulfill not just the letter of the law, but the spirit as well, allowing us to live in right relationship with God and with one another, In this way, instead of not doing this or not doing that, we do. We share God’s love, we help those in need, we praise our God with hearts washed clean, we allow our experience of peace and joy on our relationship with Christ to free us to love with all our heart mind and soul our God and our neighbor. Peace, Fr. Mike

Archdiocese of Newark - COVID-19 Directives - Updated May 15, 2022

STILL IN EFFECT: Masks will no longer be required for fully vaccinated persons. If not fully vaccinated, persons are strongly encouraged to follow CDC guidance and wear a face mask in public settings. People will no longer be required to socially distance indoors or outdoors, although unvaccinated persons should continue to maintain a safe distance from others. These directives apply to Masses and activities in Church. Archdiocesan protocols for Religious Education and Basketball programs remain in effect.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS: All ministries may return to full service – altar servers, lectors, ushers, greeters and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. Ministers of Holy Communion must still sanitize their hands and wear a mask when distributing Communion.

COMMUNION: While Communion on the tongue is now permitted, for the safety of the priests, ministers and other communicants, we encourage continued reception of communion in the hand. At this time, Communion from the cup should not be distributed to the assembly.

SANITIZING: The cleaning and sanitizing of churches and common spaces is done regularly. It is not required after every liturgy.

PARISH MEETINGS: Parish meetings in person may resume. Those vaccinated are not required to wear masks for indoor meetings nor are they required to maintain social distancing. The same recommendations for Mass apply to those not vaccinated.

IHM Pearl of Wisdom

"If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him."—James 1:5

A Prayer by Pope Francis

We come to You Lord, as brothers and sisters of a parish community. We are fragile and we are not always in communion. We need to be a community of communities that always put people in the center, accepting what each one is and has. Send your Spirit upon us so that we build a true Christian community born of shared faith, the fraternity lived and welcoming those most in need. Help us, Father, to build spaces of lively participation, and communion imbued with a missionary spirit. Give us the grace to be a parish community that evangelizes and allow us to be evangelized by the poorest, as a sign that all love and hope are found in You. Amen.

THE VERY THOUGHT OF JESUS by Author Unknown

Jesus, the very thought of Thee, With sweetness fills my breast; But sweeter far Thy face to see, And in Thy presence rest. Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame, Nor can the memory find, A sweeter sound than Thy blest name. O Saviour of mankind. O hope of every contrite heart, O joy of all the meek, To those who fall, how kind Thou art! How good to those who seek! But those who find Thee find a bliss, Nor tongue nor pen can show: The love of Jesus, what it is, None but His loved ones know.

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate John McGuire:

This week we will take a non-extensive look at the Benedictine Order! To understand this group, you have to take into account that St. Benedict of Nursia lived from around 480-547. The document that he created to guide his early community, the Rule of St. Benedict has been the source that has inspired many religious communities that would come to follow. St. Benedict was a trailblazer of monastic life. A non exhaustive list of the core values of the Benedictine Order (OSB-Order of St. Benedict) are, moderation, the dignity of work, listening, the common good, stewardship, and justice. We won't unpack each of these values, but a couple that struck me!

First we have listening, popular understanding would have us understand that the Benedictines take a vow of silence. This is not true. However, as they practice silence as a disciple, which allows them to hear God, and the needs of others. In listening, ideally they develop mindfulness, and better discipline over their speech, avoiding hurtful language and gossip. Next, we consider the dignity of work. Have you ever heard the term Ora et Labora, it means work and prayer. While dedicated to prayer and communal life, members of the Benedictine order will take part in work to sustain their community. In some cases this will mean operating a school or retreat center. It can also mean making candy or confections, roasting coffee, or even the cultivation of an herb called Liquor called Benedictine, or Brandy.
