A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

Today's story of Abraham is a turning point in the story of salvation. After creation, until now, the book of Genesis related the story of sin and rebellion. Now we see God establishing a relationship with Abraham and calling him to a life of holiness. It is an invitation or call to holiness that continues for each of us today. It is a promise of everlasting life in the glory of God, a glory glimpsed in the transfiguration, which gave the disciples, and us, courage to persevere in our journey of faith.

As Jesus does with Peter, James and John, He invites us to participate in his life and glory. The call to holiness and faith can seem daunting at times. Other times it may seem not to be worth the effort. But Jesus continues to invite us into a deeper communion and relationship with him. The more we open our minds and souls to His redeeming love, the greater we become aware of and experience his divine presence in our lives and the call to share that divine love with others, building up the Kingdom here and now.

Peace, Fr. Mike

Spirituality Seminar continues every Tuesday night @ 7pm on Zoom. The name of the book is Julian's Gospel by Veronica Mary Rolf. E-mail FrRob@ihmparish.net for an invite.

Presence™
THE MYSTERY OF THE EUCHARIST

Week One — God is With Us
God is With Us examines God's saving presence with his people throughout salvation history, culminating in the Incarnation and his abiding real presence in the Eucharist. The question to ask is not only "What is the Eucharist?" but "Who is the Eucharist?"

This week, login to formed.org and watch Presence, Episode 1.

Go to formed.org/signup Enter zip code 07076 and select "Immaculate Heart of Mary" as your parish to activate your FREE subscription.

FORMED™

Archdiocese of Newark - COVID-19 Directives - Updated May 15, 2022

STILL IN EFFECT: Masks will no longer be required for fully vaccinated persons. If not fully vaccinated, persons are strongly encouraged to follow CDC guidance and wear a face mask in public settings. People will no longer be required to socially distance indoors or outdoors, although unvaccinated persons should continue to maintain a safe distance from others. These directives apply to Masses and activities in Church. Archdiocesan protocols for Religious Education and Basketball programs remain in effect.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS: All ministries may return to full service – altar servers, lectors, ushers, greeters and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. Ministers of Holy Communion must still sanitize their hands and wear a mask when distributing Communion.

COMMUNION: While Communion on the tongue is now permitted, for the safety of the priests, ministers and other communicants, we encourage continued reception of communion in the hand. At this time, Communion from the cup should not be distributed to the assembly.

SANITIZING: The cleaning and sanitizing of churches and common spaces is done regularly. It is not required after every liturgy.

PARISH MEETINGS: Parish meetings in person may resume. Those vaccinated are not required to wear masks for indoor meetings nor are they required to maintain social distancing. The same recommendations for Mass apply to those not vaccinated.

Rosary Altar Society News

GOD IS EVERYWHERE by Mary B. Conn

God is, truly, everywhere,

Wherever we may be.

God is there to be with us,

And comfort you and me.

In times of stress, and times of sorrow,

He knows what's in our hearts.

He sends His comfort down to Earth,

And His love, imparts.

Never are we out of reach of God's most loving care!

He sees, and hears, and answers us

At home, and everywhere.

He answers every prayer we ask,

In ways that are His own.

He uses mysterious ways to show

That we are not alone.

A greater companion, no one could have

Than our dear Father, above!

He accepts and forgives us all our faults,

While surrounding us with His love!!

♥ A reminder that our Here's To Your Health Seminar will be held on March 7th at 7pm in the Nazareth Center. Please register by calling Mary Ann on 908-322-0279.

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate John McGuire:

This weekend marks the beginning of preparation for First Holy Communion for families that plan on celebrating this year during the Easter season. This process begins with a morning of reflection, followed by 10:00 am Mass, and a light brunch and conversation. The children's parents are asked to reflect on what the Eucharist means in their lives. The children themselves are asked to reflect on who has been an example of love of the Eucharist in their lives, and why they believe it is important to receive. We currently live in a time, where the practice of faith has taken a back seat to other things, and it is said that people struggle with belief in the Eucharist. I've heard embarrassing statistics about belief, but also see some opportunity in this. For our parish, and the Church, this is a privileged time to begin asking certain questions. How can Catholics grow in love and respect for the Eucharistic Lord if the Mass isn't a priority in the lives of their families? How can we as a community better welcome, and encourage families to receive and believe in the Eucharist? How do we as a parish better welcome our first communicants and their families to the table of the Lord when they receive? How about this, the second week of Lent, we dedicate part of our prayer towards reflecting on these questions, and praying for those who will soon receive Jesus for the first time. Lord give us strength to find the words, and extend the welcome, that will bring others closer to you! God Bless and have a great week!
