A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

It has been suggested that the woman in today’s Gospel represents faithlessness, and that Jesus’ offer of living water is an invitation to and gift of faith. Indeed we find more and more that, when we place our trust in Jesus, when we follow his example of giving of ourselves to God and neighbor, that we find more abundant life and joy in our lives.

The invitation to and gift of faith is extended to each of us, that we may grow closer to Christ and to our neighbor. Our physical thirst can be satisfied by water but our spiritual thirst is only satisfied in Christ and living out the commandment to love God with all our being and to love our neighbor as ourselves.

Peace, Fr. Mike

A Life-Changing Study for the Whole Parish!

Session One: Where Are You?
What are we to do with guilt? Should it be ignored, or does it present an opportunity we don't want to miss? The truth is, God seeks us out when we have sinned, not to scold or punish us, but to offer us his healing and his forgiveness. It's certainly true that God is omnipotent and just, but before all else he is our loving, merciful Father.

This week, login to formed.org and watch Forgiven, Session 1.

Go to formed.org/signup Enter zip code 07076 and select "Immaculate Heart of Mary" parish for your FREE subscription.

FORMED THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND.

Spirituality Seminar continues every Tuesday night @ 7pm on Zoom. The name of the book is Julian’s Gospel by Veronica Mary Rolf. E-mail FrRob@ihmparish.net for an invite.

Archdiocese of Newark - COVID-19 Directives - Updated May 15, 2022

STILL IN EFFECT: Masks will no longer be required for fully vaccinated persons. If not fully vaccinated, persons are strongly encouraged to follow CDC guidance and wear a face mask in public settings. People will no longer be required to socially distance indoors or outdoors, although unvaccinated persons should continue to maintain a safe distance from others. These directives apply to Masses and activities in Church. Archdiocesan protocols for Religious Education and Basketball programs remain in effect.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS: All ministries may return to full service – altar servers, lectors, ushers, greeters and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. Ministers of Holy Communion must still sanitize their hands and wear a mask when distributing Communion.

COMMUNION: While Communion on the tongue is now permitted, for the safety of the priests, ministers and other communicants, we encourage continued reception of communion in the hand. At this time, Communion from the cup should not be distributed to the assembly.

SANITIZING: The cleaning and sanitizing of churches and common spaces is done regularly. It is not required after every liturgy.

PARISH MEETINGS: Parish meetings in person may resume. Those vaccinated are not required to wear masks for indoor meetings nor are they required to maintain social distancing. The same recommendations for Mass apply to those not vaccinated.

FOUR IRISH BLESSINGS

May the road rise up to meet you,
 May the wind be always at your back,
 May the sun shine warm upon your face,
 And the rains fall soft upon your fields,
 And until we meet again,
 May God hold you in the palm of His hand.
 May you live a long life, full of gladness and health,
 With a pocket full of gold as the least of your wealth.
 May the dreams you hold dearest, be those which come true,
 And the Kindness you spread keep returning to you.
 May your pockets be heavy and your heart be light.
 May good luck pursue you each morning and night.
 May the sound of happy music, and the lilt of Irish laughter,
 Fill your heart with gladness that stays for ever after.

♥ Thank you to all who attended our Here's To Your Health Event this past Tuesday. It was an invigorating and yet relaxing evening all at once, topped off by some delicious treats!!

As you enjoy the upcoming week of St. Patrick's Day festivities, may these quotes be on your mind:

"For each petal on the shamrock, I send these wishes for you: good health, good luck and happiness, for today and all year through!" - Author Unknown

"May good luck be with you wherever you go, and your Blessings outnumber the shamrocks that grow." - Unknown
 May your week ahead be filled with special Irish Blessings as well as some corned beef and cabbage, and may you continue to realize God's daily Blessings and Miracles. You continue to remain in our thoughts and prayers on a daily basis.

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate John McGuire:

Wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear or awe of the Lord. How many of us felt compelled (or were compelled to memorize) the gifts of the Holy Spirit to speak them back to the Bishop? These are the gifts that those gathered in the Upper Room received, and took out to all of the corners of the Earth. They are also the gifts we all receive at Confirmation. This weekend is our Confirmation retreat for our candidates who await their celebration of the sacrament on May 20th. They may feel like they are moving quickly towards something like a graduation. I think we all may have felt that way when the time came for us. What I would like to challenge them to, is to imagine a world, where we stopped learning math, science, literature, composition, or basic life skills, when we completed freshman year in High School. The world would cease to function, and we would never learn anything deep, or interesting. If we cease to engage with our faith at Confirmation, if we give up on our curiosity, we will never grow to understand a small portion of the mysteries of our faith. Even worse, it will make our church a less vibrant, more boring place, if we are to go on without the presence of our newly Confirmed. So please, those to be Confirmed, dwell on those gifts that you are about to receive in your Confirmation. Pray, and reflect on how you can use them to better our Church Community through your presence, and how you can make an impact on your world in general. This week, let us pray for our candidates who are so close to their Confirmation, and for all of us gathered as a community, that we can be an example for them, in living out our own call to holiness. God Bless and have a great week!
