A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

Each time we celebrate the Eucharist we follow in the footsteps of the two disciples on the road to Emmaus. We listen to the stories of our faith history, the scriptures are opened to us, the bread and wine is blessed, broken, and given to us and we come to a greater recognition of the presence of Jesus in our midst. The story of the disciples is our story, and we long to enter more deeply into that intimate relationship with our risen Lord.

Opening our minds and hearts to the presence of Christ in the scriptures, in one another and in the Eucharist brings us closer to Jesus and to one another so that as one Body of Christ we live out our faith in the resurrection of Jesus the Christ. Sometimes we are like Thomas in last week's Gospel and need more proof, need more understanding or need more trust. Yet Jesus is there with his peace and mercy, helping us to grow in our opening of heart and mind, grow in trust of his mercy and love, grow in our ability to recognize His presence in varied and many ways in our lives. - Peace, Fr. Mike Spirituality Seminar continues every Tuesday night @ 7:15 pm on Zoom. The name of the book is Julian's Gospel by Veronica Mary Rolf.

The Easter season is upon us and the universal Church is rejoicing. Some people, however, have difficulty experiencing these joys due to their circumstances in life. Catholic Charities aims to help relieve the suffering of many in our society through its various programs. Please help Catholic Charities continue its mission by donating your unwanted clothing, small appliances, shoes, linens, sheets, towels, tools, toys, stuffed animals, knickknacks, and children's books to the Donation Bin (s) located on our property. May the spirit of the Risen Christ resound through your generosity. Thank you.

2023 Lenten Regulations

I. The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of Fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted, and two (2) smaller meals, which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast. On a day of Abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.

II. The obligation to observe the laws of Fast and Abstinence "substantially", or as a whole, is a serious obligation.

III. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance.

IV. The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty*) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, February 26, 2023 to The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, June 4, 2023.

Canon 920, §1: All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year.

GOD'S SPRINGTIME HAS BLOSSOMED

By Loise Ponkertton Fritz

Welcome the glorious springtide, Open the door to the sun;
Let in the scent of this season, Now that Spring has begun.
Hum with the soft, gentle breezes, Sing with the birds that now sing; This is a time of rejoicing, This is the season of Spring. Let in the radiant springtide,

Listen to the sounds, see the sights. Hear all the peepers a-peeping, See geese in the sky in flight.

Witness rebirth of the flowers, Discover new life everywhere;
Rejoice! God's springtime has blossomed, Where once all was bleak and bare.

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate: John McGuire

Next weekend the young people of our parish will be receiving their First Holy Communion. Their parents made a promise to raise them in their faith, and they are living up to their word, by presenting their children next Saturday. These children will be approaching the pinnacle of their Catholic faith, by receiving Christ. Their lives will be changed, and they will become what they receive. We fall into a cultural trap, which tends to prioritize what happens rarely. For instance, these children will spend the next several years preparing for Confirmation. On that day they will be truly filled with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. It will be a great day for our community, and for them, and they will be fully initiated. Yet, I will implore them to continue to approach Christ in the sacrament of Communion, as frequently as they possibly can, weekly, if not daily.

This is how we grow closer to Christ, and this gift that they are receiving will continue to strengthen and enrich their faith. This week, let us pray in a special way for these children, their families, and their friends, that they will make Christ a continuing priority in their lives, even as their lives become more demanding of their time. God Bless and have a blessed week in this season of Easter.
