A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

To know and be in relationship with Jesus is to know and be in relationship with the Father (and the Holy Spirit). It is not about knowing of Jesus or about Jesus, but of knowing him, and allowing ourselves to be open to that life-giving relationship. Jesus says in the Gospel that when people see Him they see the Father. As the second person of the blessed Trinity He is God, and thus enables us to see the Father. He shows this through his words, actions and life. We too are called to be reflections of God in our daily lives, to show by our word, actions and lives the presence of God in our lives and in the world. We remind ourselves that we try to do this not only on an individual basis, but also as a community of faith and as a church. Let us pray this week for a growth in unity and holiness for ourselves and for all people that we may better build up the Kingdom of God in our midst. Peace, Fr. Mike

Spirituality Seminar continues every Tuesday night @ 7:15 pm on Zoom. The name of the book is Julian's Gospel by Veronica Mary Rolf.

The Easter season is upon us and the universal Church is rejoicing. Some people, however, have difficulty experiencing these joys due to their circumstances in life. Catholic Charities aims to help relieve the suffering of many in our society through its various programs. Please help Catholic Charities continue its mission by donating your unwanted clothing, small appliances, shoes, linens, sheets, towels, tools, toys, stuffed animals, knickknacks, and children's books to the Donation Bin (s) located on our property. May the spirit of the Risen Christ resound through your generosity. Thank you.

IHM Summer Feast: Celebrating our Patroness, The Immaculate Heart of Mary and the Opening of Summer Academy! SAVE THE DATE - SUNDAY JUNE 25! Food, Games & More!

2023 Lenten Regulations

I. The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the “paschal fast” to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of Fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted, and two (2) smaller meals, which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast. On a day of Abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.

- II. The obligation to observe the laws of Fast and Abstinence “substantially”, or as a whole, is a serious obligation.
- III. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance.
- IV. The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty*) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, February 26, 2023 to The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, June 4, 2023.

Canon 920, §1: All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year.

FILL THEM WITH FLOWERS by Helen Gleason

Find the black holes and fill them with flowers,
Get rid of your sadness, bring joy to your hours;
Color your grief with bright hues and soft petals,
Velvet green leaves shield from the nettles,
Gaze at the blooms bursting in the sunlight,
Feast your eyes on soft petals and hues so bright;
Fill all your emptiness with bouquets of fragrance,
Don't spend a lifetime in sorrow and penance.
God didn't mean for your sadness to grow,
His are blue skies and sunsets that glow;
Even the rain showers nurture the earth,
Rainbows from storms show what life's worth.
His are the birds, His song do they sing,
Bask in the joy their happiness brings;
Upward look, lift your arms to the sky,
Drink in the air with clouds racing by.
Touch a loved one, laugh with a friend
Whose life can you touch, love's message to send?
Find their black holes and fill them with flowers,
Share with a friend life's joyful hours!!

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate: John McGuire

As the pastoral associate at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, I feel that it is my duty to remind you that next Sunday, May 14th, is Mother's Day. So, if you have a mother, or children, you better finalize your plans to make next weekend special. So are you planning a brunch, buying flowers, or maybe a diamond? All these are great ways to honor those who have bestowed upon us, and our children the gift of life, and nurturing care. While we are at it, perhaps consider a spiritual gift as well. I am always reluctant to make such a statement, because family dynamics are challenging, and loss of loved ones is a reality, especially after the last few years.

However, when Jesus was on the cross, he called over His mother, and the blessed disciple John. Jesus gave His mother Mary to the disciple, and John to her as a son. Jesus extended His own mother to us as an intercessor, and as someone to look to. Our heavenly mother is there for us, no matter the circumstances. As mother's day approaches, please take the time to acknowledge the mothers in your life, but along the way, call your heavenly mother, perhaps even through a Rosary. God Bless and have a great week.
