A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

So often Jesus goes out of his way to show and teach about care and concern for the poor, the outcast and those on the margin of society. This is also reflected not only in our first reading from Sirach, but also in many other parts of the old and new testament.

It is a reminder to us to not only pray for those less fortunate than us, but to also put our prayer into practice by welcoming and helping the poor, the outcast and those on the margin of our society. When we strive to live with the humility and grace that Christ invites us to, then we are better able to see the value in each other, no matter the status of the other, thus recognizing Christ in each other as well.

Peace, Fr. Mike

Archdiocese of Newark - COVID-19 Directives - Updated May 15, 2022

STILL IN EFFECT: Masks will no longer be required for fully vaccinated persons. If not fully vaccinated, persons are strongly encouraged to follow CDC guidance and wear a face mask in public settings. People will no longer be required to socially distance indoors or outdoors, although unvaccinated persons should continue to maintain a safe distance from others. These directives apply to Masses and activities in Church. Archdiocesan protocols for Religious Education and Basketball programs remain in effect.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS: All ministries may return to full service – altar servers, lectors, ushers, greeters and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. Ministers of Holy Communion must still sanitize their hands and wear a mask when distributing Communion.

COMMUNION: While Communion on the tongue is now permitted, for the safety of the priests, ministers and other communicants, we encourage continued reception of communion in the hand. At this time, Communion from the cup should not be distributed to the assembly.

SANITIZING: The cleaning and sanitizing of churches and common spaces is done regularly. It is not required after every liturgy.

PARISH MEETINGS: Parish meetings in person may resume. Those vaccinated are not required to wear masks for indoor meetings nor are they required to maintain social distancing. The same recommendations for Mass apply to those not vaccinated.

Rosary Altar Society News

Jesus, the very thought of Thee
With sweetness fills my breast;
But sweeter far Thy face to see,
And in Thy presence rest.
Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than thy blest name,
O Saviour of mankind.
O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art
How good to those who seek!
But those who find Thee find a bliss
Nor tongue nor pen can show,
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but His loved ones know.

A Message from the Pastoral Associate

We are all called to be stewards of our community. I am sure you hear that every time the annual appeal literature comes out, and the Archdiocese asks for your support. This is an important way to be involved, but often we overlook the other ways that we can be stewards of our faith community. There are three ways that we can do so. We can give of our time, treasures, and talents. Over the next three weeks, I am going to go through a series where I break into these three t's and perhaps explore some innovative, or outside the box ways that you can be a steward of our community. This week we will focus on time.

First and foremost, I know that time is money, and it is one of the most valuable things that you have. However, if we really care about our parish community and want it to thrive, we have to give of our time. I have a really easy, entry level way of being a steward of the community. You will be surprised by how truly basic this gift can be. I want you to look at your very busy calendar. See what work obligations, sports practices, and other chores and responsibilities. I want you to look at that calendar, and find one hour on Saturday night, or early on Sunday, and I want you to pencil in that one hour each week (does not have to be the same hour each week), and commit to joining the community at Mass. Even better, make it an hour and a half, and plan on talking to the other people there, before and after Mass, and truly forming a closer community.

We often think of Mass as a personal obligation, or perhaps a family one. Yet, we seldom think of it as an obligation to our community. Your presence is priceless to others. Your friendship, and shared experiences are golden in the edification of your fellow faithful, and only you have those things to share. Once we give our time in this way, we can open ourselves to the promptings of the Holy Spirit towards other ways of giving our time to build up the Body of Christ, through service, prayer, presence, and celebration.

This week, let us pray that we can become more attuned to the role God has for us in the Mystical Body of Christ, so that we can more freely, and efficiently give of ourselves to the community, the Church, and abroad. God Bless and have a wonderful week!
