A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

Conversion requires change, and for most people change can be difficult and even be feared. It means reestablishing the order of things in our lives, of our priorities, attitudes and sometimes even our way of life. Jesus invites us into conversion in today's Gospel. He challenges the chief priests and elders to look at the prostitutes and tax collectors as brothers and sisters, not as sinners.

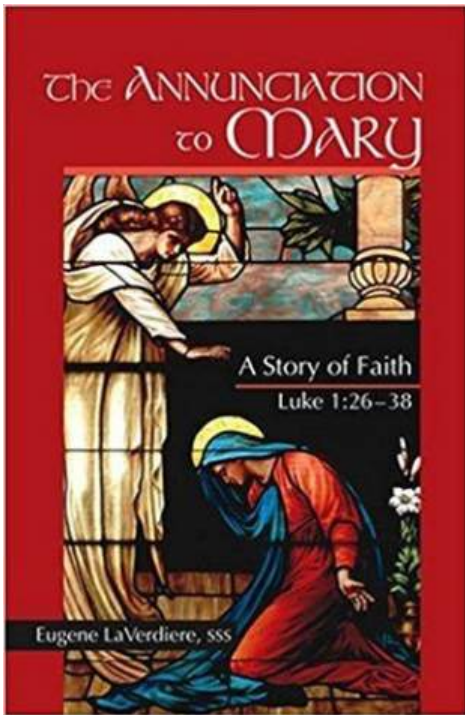

He is not saying that what they have done is good or right, he is saying that they are also in need of God's presence and love. He challenges each of us to do the same, to look at others as God's children, in need of His love and salvation just as each one of us is a child of God and in need of His love and salvation.

Peace, Fr. Mike

The Annunciation to Mary: A Story of Faith

The prologue of Luke's Gospel is both simple and profound. As we prepare for Christmas let us take a close look at Mary of the scriptures. At the heart of the book, each chapter examines a particular phase of the Annunciation story through a biblical perspective.

The deep mystery of the Incarnation is revealed in this passage of Luke's Gospel. We shall meet on Zoom on Tuesdays from 7:15pm until 8:15pm beginning November 7th, 2023.

Please register at FrRob@ihmparish.net and contact him if you have any questions.

Many Thanks to the Dibella family for the refurbishment and donation of the Statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus that enhances the driveway side entrance to the church. May the Sacred Heart of Jesus continue to lead us closer to God's love and grace.

Rosary Altar Society News

AUTUMN BLESSINGS by Deborah Ann Belka

Autumn brings to the soul relief, As hot Summer days slip to an end, God sent the season for weary hearts,

To restore, repair, and mend. Unlike the Autumn trees, That shed their changing leaves, God sent the season for failing hearts, To adhere, embrace, and cleave.

Just as with the Autumn winds, There comes a new refreshing rain, God sent the season for fraying hearts,

To increase, grow, and gain. The Autumn sun is slow to climb, And dips much earlier into the night, God sent the season for sleepy hearts, To rise, shine, and unwind in His light. God gave to us the Autumn season, So we could have a respite and rest, For it is the season for our beset souls, To see how much we are Blessed!!

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate:
John McGuire

How long do we spend in our lives being educated? To work gainfully in this world, for anyone short of a savant or an entrepreneur/inventor we might need to go as far as a Master's Degree or Doctorate for employment. Whatever degree we receive will get us in the door, and perhaps allow us to provide for our families (at least after we clear the educational debt). Then when we have that career, especially a profession, we sometimes grudgingly continue on with continuing education to keep on top of our field. If you'd believe it, I'm constantly doing programs with the Archdiocese and outside organizations to make sure that my thought processes are in line with current thought and the needs of our community. Fr. Mike, just as many other dedicated priests, will do this as well. When it comes to education, and employment, we devote an awful lot of time to maintaining a career. That employment might last us 40-60 years, but we should keep in mind that that will one day come to an end. All of our work and toil will end in retirement, or eternal rest. That is the reality that we face.

That is a long path to my next question. How do we prepare our souls for our eternity? How do we learn about our soul, our callings, and our Lord? We spend so much time focused on what we need to do to succeed in our finite life, which isn't a bad thing, but often neglect consideration of our eternal, infinite life. In October and November, we will commemorate All Saints, and All Souls. This is the perfect time to begin to think of our own mortality, and reflect on how we can seek God more intentionally! This week, let us pray for deeper clarity, and for a better orientation towards what is everlasting. God Bless and have a great week!
