A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

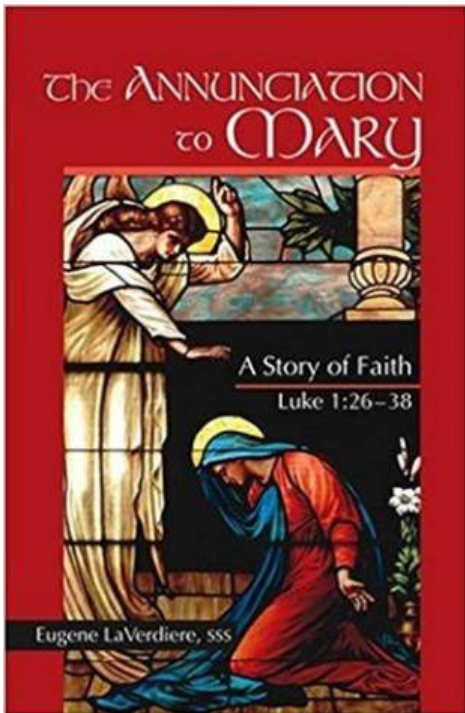

In baptism we are called to join in the mission of Christ to proclaim the Kingdom of God. We have been given the faith necessary to fulfill the mission. We have been given the gifts and talents to fulfill the mission and engage ourselves in an active relationship with Christ and His people, each in our own way. We have been given the support of the Church and parish to fulfill the mission. St. Paul encourages us to continue living out each day the faith we have received, giving thanks and praise to God. In doing this we fulfill our mission, we proclaim the Kingdom, we experience the life that can only come from God. We become the tenants in the Gospel that bear fruit in the vineyard.

This week the universal church began the Synod on Synodality, part of an ongoing journey together as the church discerns the continued movement of the Holy Spirit in the people of God: the church, its membership, leadership and especially our mission in the world. Let us pray for an openness to the Holy Spirit that we may continue to discern and live the will of God in our lives.
Peace, Fr. Mike

The Annunciation to Mary: A Story of Faith

The prologue of Luke's Gospel is both simple and profound. As we prepare for Christmas let us take a close look at Mary of the scriptures. At the heart of the book, each chapter examines a particular phase of the Annunciation story through a biblical perspective.

The deep mystery of the Incarnation is revealed in this passage of Luke's Gospel. We shall meet on Zoom on Tuesdays from 7:15pm until 8:15pm beginning November 7th, 2023.

Please register at FrRob@ihmparish.net and contact him if you have any questions.

O Jesus, Make my life like a meadow.

A beautiful meadow.

A meadow where love blooms like wildflowers.

A meadow where Your light shines like sunlight through the trees. A meadow where in the vast openness, I run to You. No matter how many times I stumble, in this beautiful meadow, I will never stop running to You.

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate:
John McGuire

Catholic parents have to do a better job of building community, and that isn't the job of priests to do. The thing is, we do not live in an insular society. We are not called to seclude ourselves from the world we live in. Jesus told us to be in the world, but not of the world. That didn't mean that we were supposed to hold ourselves above others around us, but that we are to be examples of following Christ. This can be extremely demoralizing if we're doing this alone. In our families and friend groups, we are very likely to come in contact with morality directly in conflict with what we believe in. Wildly non-traditional relationships, weird mysticism and Eastern Philosophies, deception, and a lack of reconciliation in time of deep hurts. We as followers of Christ are called to do better, heal a broken world, and again be a light to others. How can we do this alone? How can we find joy in our faith? Through developing deeper Catholic/ Christian friendships and support.

This doesn't mean isolating ourselves from all that we encounter. I'd actually say the opposite. Having stronger relationships with those who follow Christ is a way to empower us to face what we encounter more gracefully. I bring this up, because I lead the family faith formation of our parish. So often when I say that, someone envisions CCD. Children sitting in a classroom being talked at for 45 minutes to an hour. That is slowly fading away. What I find my personal ministry to be is a Family Ministry. So parents, that raises an important question.

How can our parish staff develop deeper connections among the families in our parish? What needs are currently not being met? How can we grow together? This week, pray that there can be an increase in fellowship among Catholic families, that we can better go about the building of the kingdom of heaven. God Bless and have a good week.
