A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

How often do we give thanks to God as the one leper and Naaman do in today’s readings? It is evident that they have a lot to be thankful for in that their physical bodies have been restored. But Jesus reminds the one leper that even more important that the physical is the spiritual aspect of his life that has also been healed. His encounter with Christ has brought him back into the community from which he was outcast. He is now in union with himself, with others and with God. This event invites us to not only consider who we have pushed to the margins in our lives, but also the ways in which we push ourselves away from God and from others, and to seek to encounter the healing presence of Christ to bring unity back into our lives. It is also a reminder to us to continue to give thanks to God for all that He has done for us and continues to do each and every day.

Peace, Fr. Mike

Spirituality Seminar

Coming on Tuesdays beginning November 22 @ 7:15 pm. We shall enter the heart of the youthful Julian of Norwich. The name of the book is Julien’s Gospel by Veronica Mary Rolf.

In a time of the Plague, Civil, Political and Religious strife. How through with and in all of this she found union with God? If you are interested please contact FrRob@ihmparish.net.

“And all shall be well. And all shall be well. And all manner of things shall be exceeding well.”

Archdiocese of Newark - COVID-19 Directives - Updated May 15, 2022

STILL IN EFFECT: Masks will no longer be required for fully vaccinated persons. If not fully vaccinated, persons are strongly encouraged to follow CDC guidance and wear a face mask in public settings. People will no longer be required to socially distance indoors or outdoors, although unvaccinated persons should continue to maintain a safe distance from others. These directives apply to Masses and activities in Church. Archdiocesan protocols for Religious Education and Basketball programs remain in effect.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS: All ministries may return to full service – altar servers, lectors, ushers, greeters and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. Ministers of Holy Communion must still sanitize their hands and wear a mask when distributing Communion.

COMMUNION: While Communion on the tongue is now permitted, for the safety of the priests, ministers and other communicants, we encourage continued reception of communion in the hand. At this time, Communion from the cup should not be distributed to the assembly.

SANITIZING: The cleaning and sanitizing of churches and common spaces is done regularly. It is not required after every liturgy.

PARISH MEETINGS: Parish meetings in person may resume. Those vaccinated are not required to wear masks for indoor meetings nor are they required to maintain social distancing. The same recommendations for Mass apply to those not vaccinated.

THE COLORS OF FALL

At the end of Summer days, God begins Autumn displays
Foliages of gold and red, Colorize the weeks ahead.
Hillsides show breathtaking views, Beneath the skies of turquoise blues, Leaves turn bronze and yellow bright,
Then one by one each takes its flight.
Sunshine lights orange aglow, With mums in bunches and gourdes in rows, God's richest hues of seasons all,
Are the beautiful colors of the Fall.

♥ Thank you to all who attended the wonderful Day of Reflection at St. Joseph's Shrine in Stirling on October 4th. It was truly a day of rejuvenation both for the body and the soul. The lectures, interactive sessions and the Mass were truly uplifting, and new friendships were cultivated among the attendees as we enjoyed the bonus of the bucolic setting. The raindrops did not dampen our spirits in the least!

♥ A gentle reminder to Rosary Board Members & Committee Chairpersons that we will have a Board Meeting on Tuesday, October 18 at 6:15 pm in the Nazareth Center. Please confirm your attendance by calling Janice at 908-759-6729.

♥ We will be having our Annual Living Rosary on Friday, October 14 at 7pm in the Church. We need 60+ volunteers (please bring flashlights) to represent each bead of the Rosary. Please contact Janice (908-759-6729) or Maureen (732-560-0918) by October 12 to sign up. This is a beautiful event. Please join us! All are welcome!

♥ Kindly mark your calendars for November 8th, 7pm to join us for the Christmas Fused Glass Crafting Event lead by Katie Wills. Details & pricing to follow in the coming weeks.

♥ Your continued generosity in donating women's & men's costume jewelry items for the children of St. Joseph's Social Services to select, wrap and give to their beloved family members at Christmas is so very appreciated. Please contact Janice at 908-759-6729 if you wish to donate items. May God Bless you for your kindness.

♥ Our Daily & Weekly Prayers Continue For You & Your Loved Ones. Each day is a Gift to be prayerfully unwrapped and cherished. Wishing you a blessed week ahead!!

ST. BARTHOLOMEW ACADEMY
The Catholic Academy that makes a difference in your child's life.

The beginning of the school year has been eventful for our youngest students. The students have settled into a school routine filled with movement, music, learning, and most of all fun. Guided by the Academy PreK-3 teachers, Mrs. Susan D'Apuzzo and Ms. Laura Gonnella, they have been busy exploring the school, getting to know each other, and learning about God. The students started the year learning about the letter "A" with several fun apple activities. Students also visited the Prayer Garden, where they learned about God's creation and St. Francis, and were very excited to see the fish in the little pond. Fr. Matthew Gonzalez, the Academy Chaplain, will be visiting the classes to celebrate the Feast of St. Francis and bless the students' stuffed animals.

A Message from the Pastoral Associate John McGuire

At the 12:00 pm Mass this Sunday, my son Elijah, and daughter Avila are formally entering the Church through the waters of Baptism. In the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, through the pouring of water, they are entering into the Body of Christ. So, you might be unfamiliar with the idea of having Baptisms take place at Mass. Here are my top three reasons you should do the same!

1. When you schedule Baptism outside of Mass, you are inviting your guests to either go to Church twice in a weekend or skip Mass. (I work in the Church, and it's tough to get to Church twice in a weekend, especially if it's two different churches).
2. Baptism is entering into the Body of Christ. The Body of Christ equally includes our family and friends, neighbors and Catholics around the world! So it's great to include those members of the Body we see every week, not just the ones we see at holidays!
3. Most of us don't remember our own baptisms. It's a great reminder for the whole community to witness a baptism from time to time. Added bonus, they'll be praying for your children! This week, please pray for my children who entered the Body of Christ through the first Sacrament of Initiation, and even more so for those we've yet to welcome into the Body of Christ. God Bless and have a wonderful week.
