A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

The image of swords and spears being transformed into plowshares and pruning hooks is an image of peace. But it is a peace that can only come about by our letting Jesus transform us as well. It forces us to ask ourselves the questions: What are the weapons I use to hurt others? How can I transform them into instruments of peace and love to build and lift up others?

It is in developing our relationship with Christ and becoming better disciples that we can allow ourselves to continue to be transformed by the Good News of the profound love that God has for each of us.

Peace, Fr. Mike

Archdiocese of Newark - COVID-19 Directives - Updated May 15, 2022

STILL IN EFFECT: Masks will no longer be required for fully vaccinated persons. If not fully vaccinated, persons are strongly encouraged to follow CDC guidance and wear a face mask in public settings. People will no longer be required to socially distance indoors or outdoors, although unvaccinated persons should continue to maintain a safe distance from others. These directives apply to Masses and activities in Church. Archdiocesan protocols for Religious Education and Basketball programs remain in effect.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS: All ministries may return to full service – altar servers, lectors, ushers, greeters and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. Ministers of Holy Communion must still sanitize their hands and wear a mask when distributing Communion.

COMMUNION: While Communion on the tongue is now permitted, for the safety of the priests, ministers and other communicants, we encourage continued reception of communion in the hand. At this time, Communion from the cup should not be distributed to the assembly.

SANITIZING: The cleaning and sanitizing of churches and common spaces is done regularly. It is not required after every liturgy.

PARISH MEETINGS: Parish meetings in person may resume. Those vaccinated are not required to wear masks for indoor meetings nor are they required to maintain social distancing. The same recommendations for Mass apply to those not vaccinated.

THE THANK YOU POEM: By Mark Menarik

Thank You for another day,
Thank You for this time to pray.
Thank You for another week,
Another chance to hear You speak.
Thank You for another month,
Tough to rhyme, I think I'm stumped.
Thank You for another season,
Another charm, another reason.
Thank You for another year,
With hopes and dreams to dry my tears.
Thank You for....THIS - my life,
With all its joys throughout the strife.
Thank You for the birds that sing,
Thank You God, FOR EVERYTHING!!

♥ We are approaching our final days for the costume jewelry collection. These beautiful jewelry pieces will be donated to St. Joseph's Social Services for their children to select some special items, wrap them, and give them to a special love one at Christmas. In some cases, this may be the only gift that a child may be able to give to their Mother, Father, Grandparent, Aunt or Uncle at Christmas, AND may be the only gift that their loved ones receive. Your generosity has been beyond our wildest expectations and may God Bless you abundantly for your thoughtfulness. The deadline for collections is December 4th. Kindly contact Janice Good-Piga 908-759-6729 with your questions or donations.

♥ Our Annual Winter Luncheon will be held on Tuesday, January 10th at Max's Bistro in downtown Scotch Plains. This will be a multiple course, gourmet luncheon. Rosarians and guests are invited. Menu selections and pricing will follow in the upcoming weeks. Please mark your calendars for this wonderful event. Please contact Janice 908-759-6729 with any questions.

Gratitude: by Maya Angelou

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate John McGuire:

Imagine a grand victorious parade was gathering, and would soon pass by your house. Who is in that parade you might ask? The army assembled with an array of vehicles, horses, and soldiers? No, keep guessing! The parade that will pass through your community is that of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. He does not stand victoriously at the head of an army, or a championship squad, Jesus has Conquered the powers of Sin and Death, not for a nation or a city, but for the entire universe.

Did you know that the word Advent comes from the Latin word Adventus, which means coming. This word was most readily applied to reference the arrival of the Emperor or a victorious army into a city in the Roman Empire. While we often rightfully think of Advent as a time of preparation for the coming of and celebration of Jesus' birth, what we often miss is that it is also a time of preparation for the Second Coming. If you knew that Jesus was coming back this Christmas, how would you spend this season preparing for this coming?

While it is great to purchase gifts for family and friends, and to prepare our homes for celebrations, let us make sure that this can be a time of preparing our hearts and families for the greater reality of what is to come. No one knows the day or the hour of the return of Jesus, or our own time. This week, let us pray for God's guidance in our preparations and festivities. God bless and have a wonderful week. www.ihmparish.net/childrensfaithformation
