A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

John the Baptist calls us to make straight the path of the Lord. In other words he is challenging us to remove the obstacles in our lives so that the Lord may enter more fully into our lives. It forces us to ask ourselves what those obstacles are. The images of enemies resting peacefully with one another in the first reading from Isaiah and the Psalm response speaking of the reign of Justice and Peace help us in this challenge.

Who do we consider our enemies, the outsiders in our lives, and how can we be at peace with them? How can we treat them justly and respectfully as God does? When we can answer these questions, but also live out the answers, we have become more prepared to welcome Jesus when he comes in glory and recognize his presence in our lives right now.

Peace, Fr. Mike

Archdiocese of Newark - COVID-19 Directives - Updated May 15, 2022

STILL IN EFFECT: Masks will no longer be required for fully vaccinated persons. If not fully vaccinated, persons are strongly encouraged to follow CDC guidance and wear a face mask in public settings. People will no longer be required to socially distance indoors or outdoors, although unvaccinated persons should continue to maintain a safe distance from others. These directives apply to Masses and activities in Church. Archdiocesan protocols for Religious Education and Basketball programs remain in effect.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS: All ministries may return to full service – altar servers, lectors, ushers, greeters and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. Ministers of Holy Communion must still sanitize their hands and wear a mask when distributing Communion.

COMMUNION: While Communion on the tongue is now permitted, for the safety of the priests, ministers and other communicants, we encourage continued reception of communion in the hand. At this time, Communion from the cup should not be distributed to the assembly.

SANITIZING: The cleaning and sanitizing of churches and common spaces is done regularly. It is not required after every liturgy.

PARISH MEETINGS: Parish meetings in person may resume. Those vaccinated are not required to wear masks for indoor meetings nor are they required to maintain social distancing. The same recommendations for Mass apply to those not vaccinated.

I WANT TO BE AN ANGEL

by Simone Sheppard

I want to be an angel. The kind that comes to earth.
To feed the poor, to guide the lost. To turn the tears to mirth...
I crave the power of miracles. What rapture that could bring...
To heal the sick, bring sun or rain. Or teach the mute to sing!
So when it's time my soul to go. To Heaven's pearly gate
I'll file my application. Halo, wings... I just can't wait!
And because I'm in a hurry. I'm going to start right now and In some small way I'll try each day. The Lord will show me how. I'll ask for nothing in return.
But pray for all I'm worth. That my angel resume will read
"Training done on earth."

♥ For those who may not be able to join us for our Annual Rosarian Christmas Party On Sunday, December 4th, we will still be able to accept any monetary donations that you may wish to make for the Missionaries Of Charity. A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate John McGuire:

December 3, 2022 will hopefully be a day to remember for over a dozen of our young people, because that is the day when they received their First Reconciliation. These children, and their parents experienced Jesus' love in a special way, as through the function of the priest, they heard Our Lord's forgiveness poured out upon them. I would go out on a limb, and make the claim that none of the children who attended their First Reconciliation were guilty of a mortal sin. However, the experience of going to confession at an early age, and doing so somewhat consistently, builds an attitude of receiving the grace of God, and empowers young people, especially as they face greater trials and challenges in their lives.

I say this out of love and not judgment, but parents, at every opportunity that I have made Reconciliation available to young people, particularly during Summer programs, or Confirmation retreats, they have told me two things. First, they were nervous because they hadn't gone since their First Reconciliation in second grade. Second, the opportunity to go, and unburden themselves, was one of the most meaningful experiences of the program.

Here is what it comes down to, if we want children to embrace their faith, especially what is unique to their faith, our parents, and entire community, have to build a culture that exemplifies that aspect of our faith. The children have to have access to the sacrament, see their parents approach it, and even see other adult members of the community approach it. We need to topple any barriers that keep us from it, because this is one way we can truly approach Jesus! Let's pray for the children of our parish who have just experienced this sacrament, their parents, and our whole community that we can build an atmosphere of reconciliation, and forgiveness. God bless and have a wonderful week. www.ihmparish.net/childrensfaitformation
